Jim Cavendish, Associate Professor of Sociology, University of South Florida

What is racism?
How is it manifest
in our Church
and in society today,
and how are we,
as Catholic Christians, called to respond to it?

Experiential activities and discussions will help participants explore and reflect on the reality of racism and its influence on our personal lives. Hear about how the Catholic Church has responded to contemporary racism and what still needs to be done - by the leaders and the laity – to confront racism and fulfill the commitments made in Brothers and Sisters to Us: U.S. Bishops' Pastoral Letter on Racism in Our Day.
