A Bit More about Doug and Dave

This unique Catholic ministry brings together the talents of two men dedicated to following God's call in their own lives.

Doug Brummel, known as the "man of many faces," has been in fulltime service to the Catholic Church for 30+ years, bringing his unique style of evangelization to over 1,400 parishes in 47 states. He is respected as one of the most effective intergenerational speakers in the church today. Doug has been a regular presenter at the National Catholic Youth Conference (NCYC) and the National Conference on Catholic Youth Ministry (NCCYM) for many years, as well as at many other Diocesan and National Conferences across the country.

Doug is joined in this ministry by Dave Wilson. Dave is an established musician, award-winning songwriter, and has spent the better part of the past two decades as a touring country music artist. Dave's gift of music, storytelling and witty banter strikes a perfect balance with Doug and his "characters."

Their stories, music, creative catechesis, and prayer, engage people of all ages in a fun and faith-filled way! Doug and Dave are both Catholic, dedicated husbands and fathers. They are humbled to share this important message with communities across the country.
