

A wide-angle photograph of the interior of a modern church. The space is characterized by a high, vaulted ceiling with exposed wooden beams and recessed lighting. The walls are also finished with wood paneling. On either side of the central aisle, there are wooden pews with dark blue cushions. Large windows on the sides allow natural light to enter. At the far end of the church, a large wooden crucifix is mounted on the wall above the altar area. The floor is made of light-colored stone tiles with a central aisle marked by darker tiles.
