10 January, 2020

Dear Mr. Gillmer,

As we begin a new calendar year, I send you New Year blessings and thank you from the heart for all you have done to support our brothers and sisters in our archdiocese.

We are a community of believers stepping out in faith with the assurance that God is with us despite any challenges we face. Since the time of the early Christians, our people have been characterized by our faith, hope and love of God and neighbor. We willingly share the blessings we have received as we work to build a better world for generations to come.

In this new year, our 2020 Annual Appeal is a way of making available the resources needed WRBHDVUHMRSRQVYHDMVHEEDQEHZHWHPHIRURURUSQQDOSSSHDOMHIDUWVDOOHGM□ hope," which is exactly who we are - a people of hope taking action each day.

Grateful for this hopeful witness, I ask that you and your family join with the rest of our spiritual family in sharing our Father's love by participating in our 2020 Annual Appeal. Your QDQFDOMSSRUWMDWHVWDPHQWWRWHWUDQVIRUPDWYHSRHURIRSHWDWDOORMIRURUDUEFC ministries of teaching, healing, nurturing, sanctifying, charity and care.

Please know of my promise that every dollar you contribute to the 2020 Annual Appeal will go towards bringing the love and truth of Jesus Christ to young people in our schools and college campuses; to patients in hospitals as well as our brothers and sisters who are in need of food, clothing, and shelter. Your gift will also provide hope for the future of our Church as it supports the formation of our future priests.

□ ZRJHWHUHGWRHRUNRIWHRUGDVHOYHERQGHQWOQRSHRUERQWUEWRQ□ to the 2020 Annual Appeal is a tremendous help to us in this mission. On behalf of all who are touched by your generous heart of hope, thank you for this commitment.

May God, the source and origin of all good, pour out His blessings in abundance upon you and your loved ones.

Faithfully yours in Christ,

Wilton D. Gregory
Archbishop of Washington
