COURAGEOUSLY
Living the Gospel

It's a great time to be Catholic in the Diocese of St. Petersburg. Our diocesan family is a joyful community of disciples, proclaiming the Good News and inviting all people to encounter the love and mercy of Jesus Christ. We are ever growing and enhancing our evangelization through our mutually shared vision: Courageously Living the Gospel.

Together, we are:

487,000 Catholics

74 parishes and 5 missions celebrating Mass in 11 languages

48 Catholic schools and early childhood centers providing an education grounded in Gospel values

A network of social service, health care and housing agencies serving in Citrus, Hernando, Hillsborough, Pasco and Pinellas Counties

Over 50 pastoral ministries and services dedicated to strengthening local parish life.

Together, we are the salt of the earth, and the light of the world. Learn more about your amazing Catholic family. Visit us at MyCatholicFamily.org.
