Abraham and Sarah's Visitors – Genesis 18

1 The LORD appeared to Abraham by the oak of Mamre, as he sat in the entrance of his tent, while the day was growing hot.

2 Looking up, he saw three men standing near him. When he saw them, he ran from the entrance of the tent to greet them; and bowing to the ground,

3 he said: "Sir, if it please you, do not go on past your servant.

4 Let some water be brought, that you may bathe your feet, and then rest under the tree.

5 Now that you have come to your servant, let me bring you a little food, that you may refresh yourselves; and afterward you may go on your way." "Very well," they replied, "do as you have said."

6 Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah and said, "Quick, three measures of bran flour! Knead it and make bread."

7 He ran to the herd, picked out a tender, choice calf, and gave it to a servant, who quickly prepared it.

8 Then he got some curds and milk, as well as the calf that had been prepared, and set these before them, waiting on them under the tree while they ate.

Hospitality that Wows

The unspoken question always is

“Do you Care?”

Three Characteristics of Hospitality

Three Characteristics of Hospitality

1. Making Space

2. Paying Attention

Three Characteristics of Hospitality

1. Making Space
2. Paying Attention
3. Showing Kindness

Not Always Easy

Hospitality Blesses Both Ways

Do not neglect to show hospitality
to the stranger, for by it, some have entertained angels
without knowing it.
