There's a new day dawning in our country and summer has arrived in the Diocese of St. Petersburg. Here at _____ Catholic Church, I want to welcome you home. I know many of us have been through difficult times, and we've all had to adjust. But today, our doors are open, there are plenty of seats and most of all, there's a place at the Eucharistic table for you. Our church is not a church without its people, and Jesus as the center of our lives. The Gospel tells us that Jesus is the vine and we are the branches. In this season of new growth and opportunity, _____ (church name) is ready to flourish. It's time to reconnect, to see the friendly faces we used to see, to get back into our in-person Bible studies and to get our kids reengaged in the faith. The time is now, but the only thing missing is you. Come home to church this weekend, and let our Lord welcome you with open arms. Please reach out to me if I can answer any questions or assist you on your journey of faith.

Summer is here in the Diocese of St. Petersburg, and here at _____ Church it's time to come home. We have emerged from the darkness and, like Scripture says, we have seen a great light. It's time to rekindle that fire of the Holy Spirit in your heart and reconnect with fellow parishioners and take your place at the Eucharistic table at Mass. A church is not a church without its people. We are ready to flourish. The only thing missing is you. If you've been away for some time, why not come home this weekend. Our Lord is waiting to welcome you with open arms.

I'm _____ (name), pastor of _____ Church. I want to welcome you home. I know for many of you, it's been some time since you've been back to Mass. It's good to see many of you back. COVID has kept many close to home and praying virtually through TV, live stream video or radio. Some of you may have been away for many years and maybe you've felt something calling you back to church. It is our great pleasure to welcome you home. If you have any questions, please contact me. Our Lord is welcoming you with open arms and we're glad your home.
