

Nicholas Gunn

Hello! My name is Nicholas Gunn, Nick for short, and I was born and raised in Dunedin, FL with my sister, Chelsea, and my father and mother. I am a graduate of the University of Florida, Go Gators, where I earned a Bachelors in Finance. After my time in Gainesville, I spent a year in North Carolina working for Wells Fargo in the Investment Banking division. However, during my time in North Carolina I could not deny the pull on my heart towards pursuing a call to the priesthood. All throughout my life the Lord has given me a love for the sacraments and his Church, which made the decision to discern the priesthood the next logical step. As I have moved back home from North Carolina it has been a blessing to be welcomed back to the Diocese and my home parish, Our Lady of Lourdes in Dunedin, with open arms.

In my free time I enjoy traveling, hiking, reading, video games, theater, stand-up comedy and spending time with my loved ones. I am an avid football fan and while I love the Bucs, the New York Giants are my team of choice!
