

Andrew Zsebedics

I was born and raised in Gaithersburg, Maryland for fourteen years. I am the third child in a family of six kids, with two wonderful parents. I attended St. Martin of Tours Catholic School from Kindergarten to my graduation of eighth grade in May 2014. I moved to Tampa, Florida in the summer of 2014. After moving, I attended Sickles High School until graduating in May 2018. Throughout high school, I played football as I really enjoy the fast pace of this sport. I also love being outdoors in nature, whether it be the beach, the mountains, or the backyard: in addition, I do enjoy sunsets, cloudy days, naps, cool weather, and good cup of coffee. My home parish is St. Lawrence located in Tampa. Being involved in the youth group and young adult group, St. Lawrence has been a place of great spiritual growth. What attracts me to the priesthood is the love and joy for Christ's people shared in the sacraments through the priest. As I begin my fourth year at St. John Vianney College Seminary, I am excited to continue on this awesome adventure with my fellow seminarians.
