

Pulpit Announcement Suggestion

I would like to tell you about a new website that has good news that all of us can use. It's Gulf Coast Catholic.org. It's a news and info website that helps you know, live, and share the faith.

Whether it's stories about faith and family, or news about our pope, our bishop and our regional Church here in West Central Florida, GulfCoastCatholic.org provides timely and relevant articles for staying up-to-date with Catholic life.

Gulf Coast Catholic shares stories about people who are Courageously Living the Gospel from right here in our own diocese and around the area. From parenting tips and local events, to inspirational articles, Gulf Coast Catholic has got you covered.

This website is brought to us by Bishop Gregory Parkes and the Diocese of St. Petersburg.

Today is Sign Up Sunday in our parish. I'm inviting you to sign up for the weekly news update. It's emailed to you each Wednesday. I've been receiving it now for two months and I like the articles. They cover a lot of interesting stories that you wouldn't find in other news outlets.

There are Three Ways to Subscribe to Receive the Free Weekly News Update:

1. Visit www.GulfCoastCatholic.org/Subscribe
2. Text CoastCatholic to 84576 and follow the instructions.
3. Scan the Code on the poster at the front of our church or in the bulletin ad with your phone camera or QR Code Reader App.

There's even a friendly competition going on. If our parish that has the highest percentage of people subscribing, Bishop Parkes will come to have lunch with our parish staff... and he's treating!

Win-Win!
