Thirty-First Sunday
In Ordinary Time

October 30, 2022
3:00 P.M.

Cathedral of Saint Jude the Apostle
Saint Petersburg, Florida

Cover: Detail from a larger work of Saint Jude Thaddeus, Apostle of Jesus, Martyr, and Patron Saint of the Impossible. Painted by Duccio di Buoninsegna (1260-1319), an Italian painter active in Siena and Tuscany.

The Saint Jude the Apostle Medal was commissioned for the Diocese of Saint Petersburg in 1999 at the request of the Most Reverend Robert N. Lynch, fourth bishop of Saint Petersburg. The famous Italian sculptor, Enrico Manfrini (1917-2004) of Milan, designed the medal and it was cast by the Senesi Foundry of Milan. The medal is given each year in the Diocese of Saint Petersburg as a way to recognize those persons showing distinguished and outstanding service to their parish. This medal acknowledges the great gift of the Church, its people, exemplified in these individuals who through their generosity and love of their faith have greatly contributed to spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ in their parish community.

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it:

as it was in the beginning, is now and will be for ev - er. A-men. Al - le - lu - ia.

EVENING HYMN

By All Your Saints Still Striving

Tune: AURELIA

Verse 1:

By all your saints still striving,
For all your saints at rest,
Your holy Name, O Jesus,
For evermore be blessed.
You rose, our King victorious,
That they might wear the crown
And ever shine in splendor
Reflected from your throne.

Verse 2:

Praise, Lord, for your apostles,
Saint Simon and Saint Jude.
One love, one hope impelled them
To tread the way, renewed.
May we with zeal as earnest
The faith of Christ maintain,
Be bound in love together,
And life eternal gain.

Verse 3:

Then let us praise the Father
And worship God the Son
And sing to God the Spirit,
Eternal Three in One,
Till all the ransomed number
Who stand before the throne,
Ascribe all pow'r and glory
And praise to God alone.

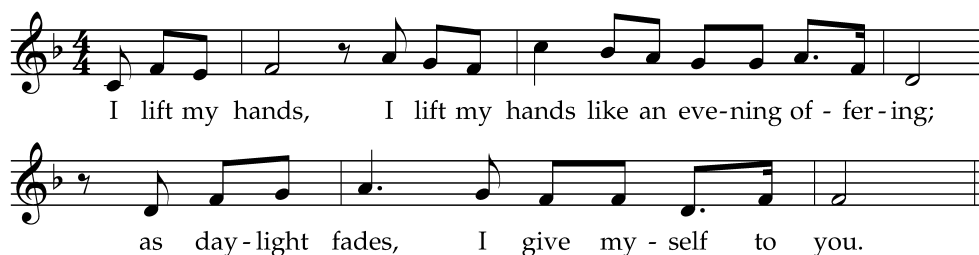

Be seated for the Psalmody

✠ THE PSALMODY ✠

The heart of the Liturgy of the Hours is the psalmody. Consisting of inspired psalms and canticles from the Scriptures, the psalmody helps the community enter into a deeper realization of the mystery of the presence of God. The psalmody may fall into the categories of praise, thanksgiving, lament or instruction, depending on the focus of the particular celebration.

PSALM 141

Refrain: Sing at the cantor's direction:

The musical notation for the refrain of Psalm 141 is written on two staves in 4/4 time. The first staff contains the melody for the first line of the refrain, and the second staff contains the melody for the second line. The lyrics are written below the notes.

I lift my hands, I lift my hands like an eve-ning of - fer - ing;
as day - light fades, I give my - self to you.

Verses will be sung by the cantor & choir.

PSALM PRAYER

carrying seed for the sowing:
they come back, come back, full of song,
carrying their sheaves.

READING

Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-13

English:

Brothers and sisters:
I, Paul, a prisoner for the Lord, urge you to live in a manner worthy of the call you have received, with all humility and gentleness, with patience, bearing with one another through love, striving to preserve the unity of the Spirit through the bond of peace: one Body and one Spirit, as you were also called to the one hope of your call; one Lord, one faith, one baptism; one God and Father of all, who is over all and through all and in all.

But grace was given to each of us according to the measure of Christ's gift.

And he gave some as Apostles, others as prophets, others as evangelists, others as pastors and teachers, to equip the holy ones for the work of ministry, for building up the Body of Christ, until we all attain to the unity of faith and knowledge of the Son of God, to maturity, to the extent of the full stature of Christ.

Spanish:

Hermanos y hermanas:
Yo, Pablo, prisionero por la causa del Señor, los exhorto a que lleven una vida digna del llamamiento que han recibido. Sean siempre humildes y amables; sean comprensivos y sopórtense mutuamente con amor; esfuércense en mantenerse unidos en el espíritu con el vínculo de la paz.

Porque no hay más que un solo cuerpo y un solo Espíritu, como es también sólo una la esperanza del llamamiento que ustedes han recibido. Un solo Señor, una sola fe, un solo bautismo, un solo Dios y Padre de todos, que reina sobre todos, actúa a través de todos y vive en todos.

Cada uno de nosotros ha recibido la gracia en la medida en que Cristo se la ha dado. Él fue quien concedió a unos ser apóstoles; a otros, ser profetas; a otros, ser evangelizadores; a otros, ser pastores y maestros. Y esto, para capacitar a los fieles, a fin de que, desempeñando debidamente su tarea, construyan el cuerpo de Cristo, hasta que todos lleguemos a estar unidos en la fe y en el conocimiento del Hijo de Dios y lleguemos a ser hombres perfectos, que alcancemos en todas sus dimensiones la plenitud de Cristo.

HOMILY

Most Reverend Gregory L. Parkes
Bishop of the Diocese of St. Petersburg

Evening Prayer is a part of the Church's Liturgy of the Hours. Christians of the first four centuries would have been as familiar with this liturgical prayer form as they were with Sunday Eucharist because they framed their day with prayer.

The "hinges" of the Liturgy of the Hours are Morning and Evening Prayer. During Morning Prayer, we dedicate the day to the Lord and ask that our work, and the work of the Church, is blessed so that we become leaven for the world. In Evening Prayer, we thank God for the gift of light (i.e., Christ our Light) and we make petition for divine protection during the night.

With its rich use of the Scriptures (psalms, canticles, and readings), prayers of intercession, symbols and gestures, the Liturgy of the Hours deepens our appreciation for the rich tradition that is our Catholic faith.

GOSPEL CANTICLE/MAGNIFICAT

Text: Luke 1:46b-55

Stand when the Bishop stands

Make the sign of the cross ✠ as the canticle begins.

Refrain: Sing at the cantor's direction

Verses

1. For he has favored his lowly one, and all shall call me blessed.
The almighty has done great things for me, and holy is his name.
2. He favors those who fear his name, in ev'ry generation.
He has shown the might and strength of his arm,
and scattered the proud of heart.
3. He has cast the mighty from their thrones, and lifted up the lowly.
He has filled the hungry with all good gifts, and sent the rich away.
4. He has helped his servant Israel, remembering his mercy.
He promised his mercy to Abraham and his children for evermore.
