

Meet Our Presenters

The Most Reverend Andrew H. Cozzens, S.T.D., D.D. serves as Bishop of the Diocese of Crookston.

A native of Denver, Bishop Cozzens is the youngest of three children. He graduated from Benedictine College in Atchison, Kansas, with majors in English Literature and Philosophy. During a period of discernment after college, Bishop Cozzens served as a travelling missionary to young people around the country with Twin Cities-based NET Ministries, and worked for one year at the University of St Thomas in Saint Paul as a missionary with Saint Paul's Outreach, leading college Bible study groups.

In 1992, he joined the Companions of Christ in Saint Paul, an association of diocesan priests pursuing holiness together through commitments to fraternal life and the evangelical counsels. After a year of formation and discernment, he was accepted into the Saint Paul Seminary. Four years later, in 1997, he was ordained to the priesthood for the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis. He served as Parochial Vicar at the Cathedral of Saint Paul and then Faribault Catholic Community (now Divine Mercy), in Faribault, Minnesota, before being sent to Rome for doctoral studies in 2002. Upon his return to Minnesota, Bishop Cozzens began service as a professor of sacramental theology at the Saint Paul Seminary, where he also worked as a formation director for the seminarians until 2012.

He completed his Doctorate in Sacred Theology at the Pontifical University of St Thomas Aquinas in Rome in 2008. His dissertation on how the priest is called to be a living image of Jesus Christ the Bridegroom of the Church explored the theology of the priesthood and the evangelical counsels of obedience, chastity and poverty.

On October 11, 2013, Pope Francis appointed him as Auxiliary Bishop of the Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis. His ordination to the Episcopacy took place on December 9, 2013, at the Cathedral of St. Paul. On October 18, 2021, Pope Francis appointed Bishop Cozzens as the eighth Bishop of Crookston. He also serves as the Chair of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops Committee on Evangelization and Catechesis where, on behalf of the Bishops, he is leading the three-year National Eucharistic Revival.

Timothy P. O'Malley, Ph.D. is Academic Director of the Notre Dame Center for Liturgy at the McGrath Institute for Church Life. He also teaches in the areas of liturgical-sacramental theology, catechesis, and Catholic education at the University of Notre Dame. He is the author of seven books, including most recently, Real Presence: What Does It Mean and Why Does It Matter (Ave Maria Press, Spring 2021) and Eucharistic Culture and Parish Renewal (Ave Maria Press, Spring 2022). Dr. O'Malley is married to Kara and has two children, ages 10 and 6.
