Marriage Enrichment 2024

Half-day enrichment opportunities for married couples

*Office of Marriage + Family Life
Diocese of St. Petersburg*

Married couples are often pulled in many different directions which sometimes leaves little time for them to devote to their relationship. This multi-purpose program provides enrichment opportunities through a series of half-day workshops. Each session is presented by a marriage and family therapist or licensed mental health counselor.

Session 1 - Family of Origins

Discover ways your marriage commitment is influenced by experiences you had growing up in your family; identify how your relationship with parents and siblings play a role in the way you establish and maintain attachments. Become aware of the impact former relationship problems can have on your marriage. Learn from the past...and let the past work for you. You will have a better understanding and appreciation of how relationships and experiences from the past can contribute to the present by enhancing your marriage.

Session 2 - Communication

This workshop will help couples identify obstacles to and enhancers of effective communication. Learn how to problem solve and communicate in an affirming and loving way and identify styles of communication that go toward compatibility and incompatibility. Discover practical pathways to effective problem solving, identify the basic languages in which couples communicate, and improve listening skills.

Session 3 – The Many Moods of Marriage

Navigating through the “many moods of marriage” can be a major challenge that all couples face. Learn more about commitment, intimacy, trust and other obstacles that can affect a marital relationship. This session will focus on ways to strengthen and enrich marriage and avoid the possible pitfalls that can cause conflict.

Session 4 - Blended Families

Many tasks are needed for a successful integration and blending of two families into one. This workshop addresses: myths and legends about stepparents, starting and establishing rituals and traditions as a new family unit, overcoming loyalty issues, co-parenting, and discipline strategies. The Brady Bunch is only a TV show. The real thing takes planning, understanding, and hard work.
