

Medical Alert List

Teachers should be informed by the administration of any student with a medical condition and be briefed as to the nature of that condition so that the teacher may be prepared. The medical alert list should be considered as confidential and should be safe – guarded by the teacher. Use of a cover sheet is recommended.