

Retention of Incoming Students

When accepting a transfer student into school, the schools of the Diocese of St. Petersburg recognize and uphold the educational integrity of the sending school. If a student has been unsuccessful in his/her FCAT results or not promoted by another school, the schools of the Diocese of St. Petersburg uphold the public school's or other private school's decision to retain the student.